Even when times are hard, we believe in supporting our community. 2020 was not easy for us and we were not able to give as much as we normally do, but we hope our contributions did help make our community a better place during such a challenging time.

LOCAL SPOTLIGHTS

TEND TO YOU

Beer Hall employee and breast cancer survivor, Ellie McDonald launched Tend to You, a non-profit that creates care packages for cancer patients. To help support Tend to You, we donated a percent of Red Tape sold from the brewery for a couple weeks in November to Ellie's charity.

SCHOOL SUPPORT

When schools shut down due to the COVID pandemic in the beginning of March, along with its school-run food programs, we offered free pizzas to any student, no questions asked.

WHYNOTDEVIN

For the third year in a row, Jack's Abby donated a percentage of all House Lager sold in November & December to Framingham-based non-profit WhyNotDevin to End DIPG. With a matched donation from Atlantic Distributors, WhyNotDevin was presented with a check for $6,500.
